

Naza TTDI celebrates Chinese New Year

Posted on February 13, 2017 | 279 views | Topic : News & Articles, Property News.

MEDIA LOU SANG WITH NAZA TTDI GROUP

PETALING JAYA: Naza TTDI recently held a Chinese New Year celebration to share festive joy with the public.

Held at Naza Tower, Platinum Park, the celebration consists of various Chinese cultural programmes such as lion dance performance, caricature, calligraphy, photo competition and lucky draw, as well as delicious delicacies like dragon beard candy.

The guests were invited to indulge in a traditional Lau Sang, a symbolic of prosperity and community bonds. A highlight of the event was a traditional lion dance, which symbolised the sign of prosperity and collective unity.

One of their new developments is MET 1 Residences at KL Metropolis. This new development is in proximity to the future MRT Line 3.

For more information, visit Naza TTDI Facebook page or www.nazattdi.com/CNY2017.

Follow us on Wechat or Facebook for the latest updates.

Download StarProperty.my e-Mag(bit.ly/StarProperty_Emag) for more articles.

Want to contribute articles to StarProperty.my? Email editor@starproperty.my.

SHARE

0

Related Articles:

Bina Puri celebrates CNY
Posted on February 22, 2017
481 Views

JKG Land celebrates CNY at The Era
Posted on February 22, 2017
680 Views

Developer's CNY celebration a fun affair
Posted on February 28, 2017
254 Views

